Kranj, just around the corner

As the capital of the Slovenian Alps, Kranj is the centre for winter and summer activities. It is the nearest city to the capital (Ljubljana) and easily accessible from all parts of Slovenia. Its charming historic centre welcomes you in all seasons to discover the secrets of the town and the countryside surrounding it.

Kranj as a must-see experience on a tour around Slovenia

In whichever direction you travel, Kranj as the centre of the mountainous and green Gorenjska region is always nearby. By motorway and railway, it is connected to Slovenian regions and neighbouring countries, and there are good air connections to other parts of Europe and the world. Let your guests get to know Kranj individually or in groups, on a short trip or on a full-day journey. This charming town, rich with architectural treats that flirt with Slovenia's highest mountain peaks, should definitely be a part of your programme.

5 reasons why

1. This is the third largest Slovenian city where true Alpine hospitality can be felt.
2. Prestigious archaeological finds in the museum are from the Slavic era (6th century AD), while on the streets the atmosphere of a medieval town can still be felt.
3. Its rich history and the friendly atmosphere will be a magnet for lovers of photogenic places.
4. Pristine nature is just a step away from the town, with plenty of opportunities for short trips.
5. This is where some of the most famous Slovenian dishes come from: Carniolan sausage and Carniolan štruklji.

RECOMMENDED TIME FOR INCLUDING KRANJ IN YOUR ITINERARY

morning and late afternoon

Kranj is an excellent starting point for discovering Slovenia

Your guests will best get to know the cultural heart of Slovenia, as Kranj is called by its greatest enthusiasts, if it is the starting point from which they discover Slovenia. From the centre of this historic town it takes just a moment to be in the countryside or at the country's alpine skiing centres. Active families are recommended to go on cycling tours and discover the Gorenjska region in five days. Highly renowned Slovenian mountaineers will lead you along the paths taken by exceptional alpinists. With its colourful experience of culture and nature, Kranj is ideal for discovering Slovenia.

5 reasons why

1. Kranj is near to all the most attractive Slovenian sights. There are comfortable connections in all directions right from the town centre. The journey to Ljubljana or to Bled takes only 30 minutes.
2. Small or large groups can stay in hotels at more preferential prices than in the other larger Slovenian tourist resorts.
3. Boutique accommodation and hotels are well known for their personal touch and Alpine hospitality.
4. Guests like to return to the charming town centre to shop for unique products or to spend their evenings at cultural and artistic events.
5. The tastes of Kranj invite you to typical cafés, taverns and restaurants.

RECOMMENDED SEASONS TO DISCOVER SLOVENIA OUT OF KRANJ

February (the month dedicated to the greatest Slovenian poet, France Prešeren, and to the carnival), from May to September there are many events and open-air festivals, in October and November things start to happen in the mysterious tunnels beneath the old town centre, while in December the town boosts with festivities.

KRANJ AT A GLANCE

A treat or the climax of your journey around Slovenia

Welcome to Kranj, the cultural heart of Slovenia. What the city and its surroundings have to offer can easily be adjusted to the needs of your guests, so that they can enjoy the pulsating life of the ancient town centre, experience its cultural sites or its natural beauties.

The centre of Kranj is one of the most charming ones in Slovenia. Townspeople's houses that were built centuries ago are real eye-catchers, as are the masterpieces of great Slovenian architects like Plečnik and Vurnik. Modernist buildings by Ravnikar are an interesting contrast, watching over the old town at its edges.

ALSO RECOMMENDED

Fine cup of coffee with a view of the town at the Panorama Stara pošta.

A very special feature of Kranj is the 30-metre-deep canyon of the Kokra River, above which the town rises. The ancient town centre is embraced by the wide River Sava from one side and from the other side by the wild River Kokra, which is only a moment away from the Main Square. There is a path along the river at the bottom of the canyon, where visitors can absorb the energy of nature in the midst of a city.

ALSO RECOMMENDED

The best burgers in Kranj on the strand in the middle of the Sava River.

In the heart of the Slovenian Alps, Kranj is the town that offers a good starting-point and shelter for alpinists. Andrej and Marija Štremfelj, legends of Slovenian Alpinism and highly experienced mountain guides, make it possible to taste the most beautiful experiences: standing on top of a massive mountain giant and seeing the view above the clouds. For beginners, it would be good to start by hiking to Javorjev vrh (1434m). Then to Storžič (2132m), which definitely has to be climbed by every mountaineer who visits Kranj. And then a special treat for mountaineers, Triglav (2864m), Slovenia's highest peak. With the Štremfeljs, hikers will learn various mountaineering and alpinist skills but, above all, they will experience some unforgettable days, rounded off by evenings spent in a town that has many cultural events to offer.
