

5 restaurants, you just have to visit when you come to Kranj

They say that food is the way to the heart and since it is our wish that you would fall in love with our town, we have these five tips for you, places to go for delicious food. Each of them is something special and each will charm you in its own way. Bon appétit!

1. Dom na Joštu

This inn stands on the top of very popular St. Jošt hill. Its chef Matjaž swears by fresh ingredients depending on each season. He always seeks harmony in taste and in his cooking he always strives to prepare only the best dishes. The excellent food can be complemented by wines from the Kristančič wine cellar or served together with home-made fruit juices containing mint, raspberry, apple and elderberry. You can expect a unique experience with a beautiful view that you will be happy to remember for a long time to come.

2. Krištof restaurant

This family-owned restaurant in the village of Predoslje has a pleasant ambience and limitless possibilities for making gourmets feel good. An intertwining of Slovenian tradition and global gastronomic trends is what the people at Krištof swear by. Their entire philosophy is based on fresh seasonal ingredients in combination with a wide selection of wines from Slovenia and the world. They have the Restaurant Slovenia quality label and were the first to be one hundred percent committed to ecologically grown food.

4. Brioni Restaurant

Brioni offers delicacies of all sorts, both salty and sweet. Next to the pastry shop, there is a small and elegant restaurant. Various breakfast menus are served between 9am and 12am and lunches can be ordered from 11:30 onwards. The philosophy of these chefs is based on freshness. Anything that you taste in Brioni has also been made here. From bread, cakes, ice creams, cooked dishes and natural syrups, it was all created in their kitchen.
